Once in a lifetime Masters opportunity from Jeremy Dale Golf Tours

Posted on 14/05/09. Source: Landmark Media (By Matthew Millard)

Jeremy Dale, 'The Trick Shot King' is offering golfers the once in a lifetime opportunity to join him on a short break to The 2010 Masters at Augusta.

The four-night 'Azalea Tour' will see golfers travel to the United States for one of the world's most famous golf tournaments and the first Major of the golfing season, accompanied by Jeremy Dale.

Guests will arrive at the Radisson Hotel, Columbia, on Thursday, April 8. The next day they will enjoy a round of golf at Greg Norman's The Reserve Golf Club and following their round golfers will be treated to Jeremy's world famous Golf Show over drinks.

The weekend will be spent in the beautiful surroundings of Augusta where guests will enjoy the final two-days of The Masters with full use of the 1018 Club, an exclusive hospitality venue offering a country club like atmosphere just a short walk from the main gate of Augusta. Here they will be able to relax on multi-level decking, surrounded by 100ft pines, blooming dogwoods and multi-coloured azaleas.

Jeremy Dale said: "I have always loved watching The Masters on TV, but never thought I'd have the opportunity to go to Augusta and actually see the course. It is just an impossible ticket, or so I thought, until my brother Chris, himself a scratch golfer at Sunningdale, bought two tickets at a golf day charity auction that I organised after my father died. I was blown away when he invited me to go with him, it was just superb - the best sporting event I have ever been to.

"I am really keen to pass on this experience and have teamed up with Go2Sport Ltd to give other golfers the chance to go on this dream trip."

To reserve your place on the Azalea Tour contact Jeremy Dale on jeremy@jeremydale.com or phone now on 07748 307849.

INFORMATION: The tour costs £3,200 per person, based on twin share - single rooms available, flights not included. Tour provided by Go2Sport Ltd.
